Rick has been the Director of Bands at Washington Irving Middle School for the past eleven years. Washington Irving Middle School is located in the inner-city of San Antonio, Texas, where poverty and crime rates continue to soar at an alarming rate. In spite of the many life challenges facing his students, during his tenure the band program has consistently earned Sweepstakes at the Region XII Concert and Sight Reading Contests and has consistently earned "Best in Class" and "Grand Champion Awards" at festivals across the state of Texas.

In 2002, 2004 and 2008 the Washington Irving Middle School Honor Band Program was named a Regional/Area Finalist in Texas Music Educators Association 2C State Honor Band audition process. This was the first time in the history of San Antonio Independent School District that such an honor had been bestowed on any band program. In the summer of 2006, the Honor Band program at Irving Middle School advanced to the Texas Music Educators Association 2C State Honor Band Finals. The band program placed 3rd runner-up in the state. In 2008 the Honor Band once again advanced to the Regional/Area finals but in the summer of 2009 the Honor Band program once again advanced to the TMEA state honor band finals.

In the spring of 2004, Mr. Flores was named Texas Teacher of the Year in the Excellence in Education Awards ceremony that was held in Austin, Texas. In 2006, Flores was selected for inclusion in the National Honor Roll for America's Outstanding Teachers. In 2007, Flores was also nominated and awarded the Trinity Prize in Excellence in Teaching. The Trinity Prize recognizes and honors outstanding educators who distinguish themselves in their profession in the greater San Antonio, and Bexar County area. In 2007, Flores was also awarded the San Antonio ISD Teacher of the Year. In the spring of 2008, the Texas Lutheran University selected Rick as the recipient of the TLU Outstanding Young Graduate Award. This award is presented periodically by the Board of Regents to alumni who have established an outstanding record of professional achievement.

Rick has been married for the past ten years to his wife Connie who is an elementary school teacher. Together they have been blessed with their six year old son Ricky, two year old son Isaiah and their third son who is scheduled to arrive in January 2010.
