

Kristin Hames

Director of Bands, Richardson North Junior High, Richardson ISD

Kristin Hames is currently in her ninth year as Director of Bands at Richardson North Junior High. Under her direction at North, the Symphonic Band has received consecutive Sweepstakes ratings at UIL Concert & Sight-reading, Superior ratings at local band festivals, and was named first runner-up in the Texas State Honor Band competition in 2005.

In 2008, Mrs. Hames was named as the Phi Beta Mu “Outstanding Young Bandmaster.” Mrs. Hames was the 2006-2007 Teacher of the Year at North Jr. High and a STARS Teacher for the Richardson ISD. She was also honored with a Life Membership from the North Jr. High PTA in the spring of 2006.

Previously, Mrs. Hames was the Assistant Band Director at Shepton High School in Plano, where she taught the Concert Band and co-directed the marching band. While at Shepton, she was selected as the Beginning Teacher of the Year in 1999.

Mrs. Hames is an honor graduate from Texas A&M University – Commerce where she earned her Bachelor of Science in Music Education. While at TAMU-C, she was the Drum Major for the “Pride” Marching Band for two years, and performed in the Wind Ensemble playing clarinet and piano at the CBDNA National Convention in Athens, Georgia, the TMEA Clinic/Convention in San Antonio, and in Carnegie Hall.

Mrs. Hames’ professional affiliations include the Texas Music Educators Association, the Texas Bandmasters Association and the Road Runners Club of America. She is currently serving a term on the Texas UIL Prescribed Music List Committee.
